

Schedule of fees and charges.

Cost transparency is at the core of everything that we do, with all fees and charges affecting your personal and pension assets being fully disclosed in advance i.e. prior to us recommending and / or arranging a product / service.

This schedule contains a note of all the fees and charges in relation to all products and services.

1. Products and services which are regulated by the Central Bank of Ireland.

Certain services are provided on a commission basis whereby Harvest Financial Services Limited (Harvest) is paid directly by the product provider, however, these can be provided on a *fee basis.

Harvest receive minor non monetary benefits from time to time which are designed to enhance the service we provide to clients e.g. a training day and access to research. Other non-monetary benefits received by Harvest will be priced and disclosed separately.

Notes:

Harvest may make payments to our client's advisor for selling a product, details are available on request. Harvest may agree at its discretion to pay fees from a product to our client's advisor for certain services provided by that advisor in respect of the product.

The annual administration fee for unregulated products:

- can increase after three years if a capped fee is agreed;
- is payable in arrears (not less otherwise agreed);
- is based on the product value which is disclosed in the previous year's annual report (or the transfer value if it is the first annual administration fee); and
- is charged on a pro rata basis where the product is wound up / transferred.

Some fees and charges are indicative i.e. additional fees may apply where the product includes non-standard investments or where the default bank / solicitor is not used.

*Certain fees are subject to VAT at the standard rate and is charged at the rate in force when the invoice is generated.

This schedule is effective from and correct as at the 16th February 2023 and is subject to change without notice.

Third party charges are outside Harvest's control and may change in the future - additional charges may be applied by third parties^ e.g. banks may levy negative interest rates and charges in relation to cash held in stockbroking and bank accounts.

The information contained herein is based on Harvest's understanding of current Revenue practice as at February 2023 and may change in the future.

Please note the provision of the products and services which are not regulated by the Central Bank of Ireland do not require licensing, authorisation, or registration with the Central Bank of Ireland, and, as a result, are not covered by the Central Bank's requirements designed to protect consumers or by a statutory compensation scheme.
